Louisville. He said the parents of the girl objected, and under the laws of Arkansas he was obliged to have their consent. So he came to this Gretna Green. He will now solve the problem of supporting a wife on $13 a month.

The pupils of the Clara Conway Institute enjoyed a most delightful treat yesterday during the visit of Mr. James Carden and his wife to the school. Mr. Carden was induced to recite for them "Shamus O'Brien," at the conclusion of which, in response to an encore, his wife sang them "The Soldier's Tear," which was excellently done and gained for her the hearty applause of the entire school. No one should fail to hear Mr. Carden lecture next week.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the ladies of the city generally are invited to meet at 273 Main street to consult and arrange for the projected entertainment, "An Evening in Old Times," in aid of the Women's Christian Association. The large circle of outside friends who, two years ago, made the "kettledrum" so brilliant a success, socially and financially, will, it is expected, rally to a man, and bring their friends, thus securing for the plan proposed a triumphant realization.

The Manchester Guardian, in its commercial article, says: "But little business has been done. The market is quiet. Cloths are steady. Producers who are not supplied with orders are willing sellers at Tuesday's rates. There is a little Eastern demand. Elsewhere there is merely a retail trade. Yarns are dull and freely offered. The business doing barely sustains prices. The hardening of cotton compels spinners to hold firmly, but no progress is made in selling."

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five a bottle.

Dandruff.

IS REMOVED BY THE USE OF COCAINOL, AND it stimulates and promotes the growth of the hair.
